

Where the fans run the show

Inside TV.com: Behind the scenes at the ARIAs, October 2008

TV.com provides a fun, interactive environment for TV fans to express opinions about the entertainment they love. Whether it's celeb gossip, TV, film or music nights – you can count on TV.com to be there!

TV.com is at all the A-List events - delivering Australian audiences more of what they've asked for - local content on their favourite shows. Kate O'Shea, the new face of TV.com interviews the hottest Australian talent at the 2008 Arias and gives readers the backstage scoop behind the most talked about Australian Music Awards evening.

Kate hit the red carpet and interviewed Australian TV and music personalities including Nathan and Fuzzy from Video Hits, Nicole Da Silva and Roger Corser from Rush, Australian Idol host Andrew G and Idol alumni Anthony Callea to name just a few!

Gabriella's sweet ARIA night

By David Knox 10/19/08 7:15 PM 0 comments 1 add yours
17yo Gabriella Cilmi and The Presets swept the 22nd ARIA Awards.
The 2008 ARIA Awards opened with Hamish & Andy lowered from the roof of Acer Arena. In one of several visual gags that marked their hosting. With James Mathison playing 'straight man' for the night, their slapstick humour proved to be the only bit of Aussie cheek in an otherwise 'best behaviour' event. Even Aale Whitehead was at his most polite.

Aria Awards 2008: Red Carpet

Large image of a man in a suit being interviewed on the red carpet. Text overlay: 'ARIAs Awards 2008: Red Carpet TV.com steps onto the red carpet at the Australian music industry's night of nights.' A green 'Watch Now' button is visible.

